Preparatory English Programme

This 10-week programme, only offered in conjunction with a BHMS standard programme, is an intensive course designed for students whose English level is not yet sufficient to meet the entry requirements of a specific academic programme. BHMS accepts the Duolingo English test as an approved language test. <https://englishtest.duolingo.com>

Internship Placement

During each academic year, the majority of programmes require that students successfully complete a 4-6 month internship period in a hospitality establishment approved by BHMS. Students undertaking an internship in Switzerland will be under contractual obligation with their employers, which will entitle them to receive a trainee's gross monthly salary of CHF2,359.
